
Our Vision is to be All For Jesus

All Souls Music Ensemble Co-ordinator

A full-time permanent post working with All Souls Orchestra. 35 hours per week (plus lunch breaks), including some evenings and weekends to support rehearsals and events. Salary in the region of £24,000 pa.

The All Souls Music Department (Langham Arts) has a vacancy coming up within the team that handles the activities of the All Souls Orchestra including Prom Praise. This is a huge opportunity to be part of the team that shapes All Souls Music in a 21st century context under the leadership of Senior Music Minister Michael Andrews, as we aspire to reach a new generation of worshippers.

We are looking for a person who is a committed Christian with musical experience (ideally, an experience of orchestras) and strong organisational skills to fill a supportive role working with the musicians of the All Souls Orchestra and their support team, maintaining good relationships to attract and integrate them into the ministry of All Souls Music.

Key areas include:

- Fixing and coordinating players for events
- Supporting music preparation for each occasion
- Giving practical supporting rehearsals and performances
- Supporting Orchestra volunteer fixers in building supportive relationships in the Orchestra family

Full time: 35 hours per week (plus lunch breaks) including evenings & weekends when required

Salary: in the region of £24,000
