

Fundraising Manager

2 year fixed term, part time: 3/4 days per week, salary: in the region of £29,581 + £3,940 LLA (pro rata)

We are looking for an experienced Fundraising Manager who has excellent communication skills and a sound knowledge of UK legacy giving.

The role holder will, amongst other things

- take the lead for developing and implementing all fundraising strategies across ministries
- identify, cultivate, approach prospects and secure donations from diverse sources
- develop and maintain excellent relationships with funders (Trusts, major donors, corporates)
- participate in the design and execution of special events
- play an important role in realising the ongoing vision for ASSTC, both at a strategic and operational level.

If this sounds like it would fit your skills, then please apply. Visit our website <https://asstc.org.uk/> to see the job description with full person spec.

Please send applications to recruitment@allsouls.org and include:

- The All Souls job application form
 - A two-page (max) CV (with the names and contacts details of two referees, one of whom must be the applicants most recent employer)
 - A one page cover letter setting out why you feel you are suited to the post and also stating what you think you can bring to the role.
- ❖ Application closure: Friday 2nd December, 5pm
 - ❖ Interviews: w/c 12th December
 - ❖ Start date: by agreement

There is an occupational requirement that the job-holder is a Christian under Part 1 of Schedule 9 to the Equality Act 2010.

The All Souls Church family is diverse as the global body of Christ is diverse and as London is diverse. Applications are welcome from people from ethnic groups which are a minority in the UK.
